

MIDLAND GUILDFORD CRICKET CLUB

MGCC GENERAL CODE OF CONDUCT

- The Midland Guildford Cricket Club (“the Club”) will adopt from time to time and modify as appropriate, the Code of Conduct published by Cricket Australia and the International Cricket Council (ICC), which contain details of inappropriate and undesirable conduct
- All of the Club’s members (defined to include all players, officials and umpires, together with our players’ guardians/family) are bound by and required to comply with this Code of Conduct
- Club players to play by the rules, including abiding by/with the Spirit of Cricket;
- Club players never argue with an umpire. If you disagree, have your captain, coach or manager, as applicable, approach the umpire in an appropriate manner during a break or after the game;
- Control your temper. Verbal abuse of any officials and sledging by any Club players or members, including players deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent, are not acceptable or permitted behaviour in cricket or by the Club;
- Players work equally hard for yourself and your teammates. Your team’s performance will benefit and so will you;
- Be a good sport. Applaud all good plays whether they are made by your Club’s team/players or the opposition;
- Players treat all participants in cricket as you like to be treated. Do not bully or take unfair advantage of another competitor;
- Players cooperate with your coach, teammates and opponents. Without them there would be no competition;
- All members should participate at the Club for personal enjoyment and the benefit of all;
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person regardless of their gender, sexual preference, ability, cultural background or religion;
- No reports and/or guilty findings under Club, WACA or Cricket Australia Code/s of Conduct
- Club members shall at all times maintain a positive image of the Club and be constructive in all of their comments;
- The Club does not condone the use or supply of illegal or prohibited substances
- The Club does not condone excessive use of alcohol nor does it accept intoxication, to any degree, as a reason for any breach of this Code of Conduct or of the Club’s rules
- The all indoor areas of the Club, and at all opposition clubs, including change-rooms and the Club’s Indoor Centre are strictly Smoke-Free zones

- Club members shall cooperate with the Management Committee, Coach/s, Captain/s, team mates and all other Club members and shall follow due process in relation to any disputes

In addition, all incidents or breaches of this Code of Conduct will be acted on by the Management Committee. Any penalty will be determined by that Committee. At all times this Code of Conduct is to be read in accordance with relevant section/s of the Club's Constitution
